INTRODUCTION

The Allen Family papers, 1796-1952, consist of items relating to the Allen family of Rhea County, Tennessee. The Allen Family Papers are a gift of Dr. Cromwell Tidwell, Nashville, Tennessee. The collection occupies 1.68 cubic feet of shelf space and numbers approximately 2,000 items.

Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Allen Family papers may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Allen Family Papers span the period 1796-1952. The collection consists of account books, accounts, advertisements, bonds, budget documents, cards, certificates, correspondence, court documents, election results, financial documents, financial statements, genealogical data, land records, law license, legislation, military discharge, military orders, newspaper clippings, petitions, poetry, political handbills, printed materials, programs, and some wills.

The Allen Family lived in Dayton, Rhea County, Tennessee and was very active in local affairs. Valentine C. Allen (1842-1915) served as Chancellor on the Circuit Court, Twelfth District. Prior to service on the court, V.C. Allen was an attorney practicing out of Dayton, Rhea County, Tennessee. In 1871, V.C. Allen served in the legislature, but refused to run for re-election. In addition to his professional service, Valentine was very active in Confederate Veteran organizations based in Dayton, Rhea County, Tennessee, and in the Methodist Episcopal Church South. William B. Allen, Valentine's son, served as Circuit Court Clerk in the Twelfth District Court. William was very active in church affairs relating to the Methodist Episcopal Church South and also in the Scottish Rite Organization.

The Allen Family Papers are concentrated around legal proceedings. The correspondence is divided into separate series between V.C. Allen and W.B. Allen because of the matters covered in the letters and for ease of research. The collection is an interesting view into various court cases that were heard at the time.
